Dear Friends,

We are pleased to share invitations to two upcoming events you might be interested in.

Screening of "Third Act" -- a film by Tadashi Nakamura

Tuesday, March 31, 2026, at 6 pm at the University of Hawaii's Architecture Auditorium, Room 205, on the Manoa Campus.

Join renowned filmmaker Tadashi Nakamura for a screening of his latest film, Third Act (2025). Generations of artists call Robert A. Nakamura "the godfather of Asian American media," but Tadashi calls him Dad. What begins as a documentary about his father's career takes a turn with a Parkinson's disease diagnosis, evolving into an exploration of art, activism, grief, and fatherhood.

Registration is required no later than March 27th -- --

Thursday, April 2, from 5:30 - 7:30 pm at University of Hawaii -- Bachman Hall Room 106, Manoa Campus

Please join to share your input on what a future national Asian Pacific American museum could look like.

The National Asian Pacific American Museum Commission is continuing its listening tour across the country and will be in Honolulu next week. They invite anyone interested in learning more about the work of the Commission—including community leaders, academic professionals, and youth—to join and share your input on what a future National Asian Pacific American Museum could look like. Learn more at www.nationalapamuseum.org.

Registration is required to attend. To be considered to present comments during this event, you need to complete a form by Friday, March 27. Registration and comment submission details can be found here -- <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/regional-convening-and-listening-session-honolulu-hi-tickets-1984996423738>

Aloha,
